

HONEYPOUND

VIRGINIA AND PETER LETCHER

HONEYPOUND STANDS ON THE SITE OF A SMALL HOUSE, ORIGINALLY CALLED WESTERN COTTAGE, LATER HONEYPOUND COTTAGE, BUILT BY THE GREENWOOD FAMILY (OF WHITSBURY) DURING WORLD WAR II. IT WAS ON OCCASION USED BY THE GOULDSBURY FAMILY OF WILLIAMS FARMHOUSE AS AN "OVERFLOW". IT WAS ALMOST DERELICT WHEN BOUGHT BY THE PRESENT OWNERS IN 1987, WITH PERMISSION TO DEMOLISH THE COTTAGE AND BUILD THE PRESENT HOUSE. THIS
